Deputation Director and Church Planting Representative for Asia

Dear Pastors and friends in the ministry,

May 2025

He is risen!

As we continue pursuing the mission through Enlisting and Educating, we're thankful for another impactful month. April was full of several encouraging opportunities, including preaching, a leadership meeting, orientation, our annual benefit golf tournament, and celebrating Resurrection Day.

Faith Promise and VSM

On March 30th, we were at a church where Rebecca and I had the privilege of encouraging the congregation in faith-promise giving. It's always a joy to share about the great need around the world and how each believer can be involved.

Throughout the month, we continued teaching at the Vision School of Missions (VSM). We're blessed with a fantastic group of students, and it's a pleasure to invest in their training and growth.

VBM Leadership Meeting

The leadership team of Vision Baptist Missions (VBM) also gathered this month to pray, encourage one another, prepare for orientation, and take care of key administrative planning. Rebecca and I are grateful to serve alongside such faithful brothers and sisters in Christ, all working together to advance the gospel and honor the Lord in everything we do.

VBM Orientation

Mid-month, we hosted our VBM Orientation—a special time of instruction, fellowship, and refreshment. We're always encouraged to reconnect with missionaries on furlough and enjoy time with the VBM family. It's also a blessing to teach some of the training modules ourselves and be challenged by others.

Benefit Golf Tournament

Finally, we hosted the annual Benefit Golf Tournament to help raise funds for the William Carey Building. Ministry requires resources, and this event is one of the ways we invite others to invest in the gospel work. It was a fun event with an eternal purpose, and we thank the Lord for bringing it all together and blessing it.

We had a wonderful Resurrection Day and trust you did as well. Thank you for your continued prayers and support. Every prayer and gift makes a difference as we strive to reach the world with the gospel.
