Church- Planting Missionaries in TAIWAN

Feeding The Multitude

This month, we wanted to try something that Jesus did—meet new people and share the gospel with them through food! Leo's cousin owns a beautiful banquet hall and graciously allowed our church to use it at a very low cost so that we could expand our Dinner Church outreach.

As a team, our church came together to pass out flyers, invite friends and family, and serve the guests who came. What a joy it was to see the church unite to share the gospel with those who had never heard it before! Many of the people who came had rough backgrounds—some were even homeless. As we watched them walk through the doors, we were reminded of the kinds of people who came to Jesus. Though our goal was to minister to them, we found that they ministered to our hearts.

Please continue to pray for our Dinner Church! God is using it, and we've already seen people start attending our Sunday services because of it!

At the location where we hold our Sunday services, we also hosted a breakfast before church for two weeks, in addition to our bi-weekly Dinner Church. Not only did people come because of Dinner Church, but many also responded after receiving a flyer. Some told us they had never been to church before; others said they had never heard the message of why Jesus came explained so clearly.

During the breakfast events, Tracy, one of our church members, really stepped up. She took the lead on planning, shopping, and cooking for the event. She also used the opportunity to invite her son to help, giving him a chance to hear the gospel!

YoCheng

A few weeks ago, we received a message from a mother concerned about her 14-year-old son. She shared that her son, YoCheng, had no interest in spiritual matters and didn't want to attend church with her. After seeing our church information and noticing our focus on teaching God's Word, she asked if we would be willing to read the Bible with him.

From the first time we met him until now, YoCheng has shown a genuine interest in Scripture and has even helped us with several church events! His mother told us that since he began reading the Bible with us, he has started enjoying coming to church and spending time with us.

Although YoCheng does not yet claim to be a Christian, it is our prayer that he will soon come to a clear understanding of his sin and of Jesus' love for him—and that he will place his trust in Christ.

Please pray for YoCheng and his mother, and for wisdom as we continue reading the Bible with them!
