There has been a lot happen since our last prayer letter. In February, I continued teaching basketball/English classes at the local YMCA. I usually have around 15-20 students between the ages of 9-18. In these classes are some of our church children/teens. They invited some of their friends from the class to our church. They came and heard the gospel. I am thankful for the opportunities God has given us through this class.

Faith Baptist Bible College is currently at the mid-term break. We will finish this semester by the end of May. We are continueing our planning for our second graduation this coming May. We are planning to graduate four students. Please pray for the graduating students and that the graduation will be an opportunity for many family and friends to hear the gospel.

The Cameron Schmutzler family returned to Mongolia at the end of February. He is again teaching our adult Sunday school class.

March began with Tsagaan Sar. Tsagaan Sar is Mongolia's biggest holiday. It is several days where everyone will visit in the homes of their family and friends. It is customary on the first day of Tsagaan Sar to visit with the oldest member of the family. Then the following days will be more visits with family and friends. There is much eating of buuz (meat dumplings) and drinking milk tea. My family visited 6 homes. We also hosted our church family at our home. It was our first time doing this. It was a great time together and one of our men shared some thoughts from the Bible.

We have a young couple who we have been working with for some time that have begun teaching our teen Sunday school class. Please pray that they and our teens will continue to grow together in the Lord.

We also had a change in our living situation. The place we have been renting is being sold. We had to move to another place. Because we have been approved for a furlough beginning in June of this year, we needed a place for only two months. Most places want at least a year agreement and one months rent deposit. We are thankful that God has provided a place without an agreement and for only two months.

We have also found a new meeting place for the church. It will require some renovations before we can move in. We have given our 30 day notice to our current landlord and are planning to be in the new place by May. Please pray for us as we will be doing some renovations and moving.

Thank you again for your prayers and support.
