Dear Pastor & Friends,

We are so thankful for the things the Lord has allowed us to accomplish over the last two months. Thank you for your unwavering prayers and continuous support for our family. We truly could not do this work without you. We witnessed the Lord do many great things in the jail over the past couple months. I am thankful for the opportunities the Lord gives us to witness to the inmates at the jail. I am amazed sometimes how the Lord opens the door for this. The other day I was sitting in my office and an inmate asked if he could talk to the Chaplain as he passed my office. Now that Ramadan has started I get a lot of questions on this subject and others asking to sign up for it. This inmate was asking about it and then made a statement about how he thought we all were Muslims. I told him we are not all Muslims. I did tell him that there is one thing we all are, and that is sinners. We all have sinned and come short of the glory of God. I told him there are 2 things I know for sure, and that is we all have sinned and we all will die. Then I explained that Jesus came to raise us from the dead and forgive all our sins, and He through this resurrection from the dead; not only forgives our sins, but it also gives eternal life. I explained to him how this is the only way to deal with the fact that we have sinned and that we will die, He did not receive Christ, but I am so thankful that the Lord brought him to where I was, just so I could give him the gospel. God will put people in your path each day for you to give hope to them. You never know what the seed you sow will accomplish or if the Lord is using you to water the seed. Let us all do our part in spreading the gospel. It is not our part to save them, but it is our part to tell them.

Continue to pray for the work of the jail and that the Lord continues to open the door for us. It is an election year, so we will see what changes we will face ahead after the election. Starting in April, I will begin working 40 hours each week instead of 30. This will give us more opportunity to witness and hopefully start some discipleship classes.
